Welcome

Welcome to 2026 at Queen's Theatre Hornchurch!

We're so excited to share another year of bold, inspiring theatre, unforgettable live entertainment and creative opportunities made right here in the heart of our community.

As a registered charity, we're proud to be the cultural heartbeat of our region - a place where stories are shared, memories are made, and everyone is welcome. Whether you're after a feel-good night out, a family treat or something to surprise and delight, there's a fantastic season ahead waiting for you.

We're kicking off the year with Perfect Show for Rachel: "a joyous celebration of theatre without the rules" ★★★★★ (The Stage). Then comes the scandalously funny Loot by Joe Orton, followed by Caroline: A New Musical, a bold, funny and heart-filled actor musician production created with the East Anglian Touring Consortium. It's a story about love, ambition and finding the courage to turn up the volume on your own voice. And if you're dreaming of dazzling dance, epic songs and a whirlwind of colour and romance, don't miss Rifco's spectacular Frankie Goes to Bollywood.

Families are in for a real treat too, with over 180 members of our QYouth company bringing The Wind in the Willows to life, alongside Zog: Live on Stage and Tom Fletcher's There's A Monster in Your Show in the main auditorium. Plus, our brand-new Saturday morning series on The Other Stage is packed with fun-filled children's entertainment.

And of course, no festive season would be complete without panto! Next Christmas, string your bows and join us for some festive fun in the Forest of Havering as Robin Hood hits the bullseye in a brand-new, laugh-out-loud pantomime adventure!

We're also thrilled to host an incredible line-up of live music, comedy and visiting shows from across the UK – so there's always something new to enjoy at your local theatre.

Don't forget to stop by our friendly café and bar, open all day for coffee, lunch, afternoon tea or pre-show drinks – the perfect place to relax and catch up with friends.

Last year, over 95,000 people joined us for live performances, and another 35,000 took part in our community and learning activities. So come and be part of it! There's an unforgettable night out waiting for you, right on your doorstep.

"Why can't more theatre be like this? Open, relaxed, fun and full of love" The Guardian

Perfect Show For Rachel

Step into Rachel's unique, often hilarious world in this critically acclaimed show.

Rachel is a theatre-loving, enigmatic, learning-disabled 35 year-old who loves Kylie, heckling her sister, and seeing people falling over. At the touch of a button she commands the action, each scene brought to life by a skilled cast ready for whatever she asks of them. From bar room brawls to a bourbon biscuit cabaret – get ready, this is Rachel's Perfect Show.

Perfect Show For Rachel is a "joyous celebration of theatre without the rules" (★★★★ The Stage), combining physical theatre, live music, family memories, massive fights and fart jokes in an electric, moving and triumphant tapestry.

THE SCANDALOUS DARK COMEDY BY JOE ORTON

Loot

A WICKEDLY FUNNY NIGHT
AT THE THEATRE

Loot

Get ready for a wickedly funny night at the theatre as Joe Orton's scandalous dark farce Loot bursts onto the stage.

A bank robbery, a family funeral, and a coffin with a shocking secret – nothing is off limits in this mischievous comedy of chaos! When a daring heist goes spectacularly wrong, the money ends up in the most unlikely hiding place, and the lies begin to pile up fast. What follows is a whirlwind of cover-ups, confusion and sheer audacity as everyone scrambles to stay ahead.

Orton's masterpiece is packed with razor-sharp dialogue, physical mayhem and twists that spiral towards the absurd. Daring, dark and unmissably funny, Loot remains one of Britain's most outrageous comedies.

CAROLINE

A NEW MUSICAL
WRITTEN BY VIKKI STONE

THE PIRATE RADIO STATION THAT ROCKED THE AIRWAVES

Caroline: A New Musical

A radio station for young people! Why do we need that?

Caroline dreams of something more than stacking shelves at the local greengrocers. Her days are routine, but her nights come alive, walking the pier, sharing laughs with her best friend Mary, and spinning records with Robbie, her music-mad boyfriend who's big on charm yet short on direction.

But a music revolution is coming, and Robbie lands a shock gig with Radio Caroline - the pirate radio station blasting pop, soul and rock 'n' roll from a ship off the Essex coast and suddenly everything changes. Caroline is swept into a tidal wave of music, mayhem and a movement that would shake up British culture forever.

Set to a soundtrack of iconic hits, Caroline is a vibrant, heart-warming and rebellious new musical about love, ambition and discovering your own voice.

She's not a DJ. She's not a rock star. But in the middle of Britain's radio revolution, Caroline might just steal the show.

THE HIT MUSICAL RETURNS

RIFCO THEATRE COMPANY
PRESENTS

'A POWERFUL AND COLOURFUL
MUSICAL WITH EVERYTHING'

CONCEPT AND BOOK BY SONGS AND MUSIC BY SONGS AND LYRICS BY PRAVESH KUMAR NIRAJ CHAG TASHA TAYLOR JOHNSON
WITH NEW BOLLYWOOD SONGS BY HARRY ANAND

Frankie Goes To Bollywood

After a smash-hit UK tour, Frankie Goes to Bollywood returns—bigger, bolder, and bursting with Bollywood glamour.

This dazzling musical comedy-drama dives deep into the glitzy, high-pressure world of Indian cinema, where dreams are mass-produced, identities are reshaped, and women are expected to smile and play by the script written for them.

At the centre of it all is Frankie, a young British woman with little interest in fame. But her quiet suburban life is turned upside down as she is thrust into a world of dazzling lights, choreographed perfection and media obsession. Frankie must decide: Can she become a star without losing who she really is?

What must she give up to succeed in a man's world—and what is she willing to fight for?

With show-stopping choreography, lavish costumes, and a cast of unforgettable characters, Frankie Goes to Bollywood is a bold, uplifting story of ambition, transformation, and the power of telling your own story.

Featuring original Bollywood songs by hit composer Harry Anand, this is Rifco Theatre Company's most ambitious production yet—a celebration of love, identity and courage, packed with joy, drama, and spectacular entertainment.

Whether you're a fan of musicals, Bollywood films, or powerful British stories, this is one night at the theatre you won't want to miss.

THE RIVERBANK
JUST GOT LOUD!

THE WIND IN THE WILLOWS

A MUSICAL ADVENTURE

ADAPTED BY JAMES WATSON AND ANDREW LINHAM
BASED ON THE TREASURED TALE BY KENNETH GRAHAME

The Wind in the Willows

Buckle up for a fast-paced family favourite as we race along the riverbank on a musical road trip following the outrageous Mr Toad on his high-speed adventures.

Ratty, Mole, Badger, and a host of other riverbank characters join this heart-warming story of fun and friendship which is sure to get your toes-tapping. But watch out for those Weasels! Expect attitude, anarchy, and a whole lot of noise.

Performed by over 180 youth theatre members, this twist on a classic tale is a musical adventure of boating, motor cars, and daring escapes. Poop, poop!

ZOG

BASED ON THE BOOK BY

JULIA DONALDSON ✿ AXEL SCHEFFLER

LIVE ON STAGE

Zog © 2010 Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler. Published by Alison Green Books, an imprint of Scholastic Children's Books

'I'm not braggin' but I'm a dragon'

Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler's classic, feel-good story is brought to roaring, soaring life in this delightful musical for children.

Zog is the keenest dragon in Madam Dragon's school. He's also the most accident-prone, flying into trees, and even setting his own wing alight. Thankfully, a kind girl comes along to patch up his scratches and scrapes – but can she help him with his biggest challenge yet, so that he can finally win a golden star?

From the producers of Stick Man and Zog and the Flying Doctors.

FLETCHER
and illustrated by GREG ABBOTT

There's A Monster In Your Show

A group of performers are preparing to start their show, but quickly discover they are not alone on stage. Little Monster wants to be part of the fun too! With an invitation to his friends, Dragon, Alien and Unicorn to join him, you can expect comedy and chaos as they help to create a magical show, learning about the joy of books and friendship along the way.

Tom Fletcher's interactive adventures for big imaginations are leaping from page to stage, as the beloved 'Who's in Your Book?' series tours the UK in a brand-new musical show.

New music composed by Tom Fletcher, Barry Bignold and Miranda Larson.

Your Theatre at the Heart of the Community

We're proud to be the cultural heart of our region – creating unforgettable shows, live events and learning opportunities inspired by local stories and people. From bold new plays to joyous musicals and inclusive family pantos, we create theatre that connects, inspires, and reflects our community.

Last year, 95,709 people attended performances at QTH, and a further 35,023 took part in workshops, youth programmes and community events.

As a charity, we rely on generous support to bring this work to life and here's just a glimpse of what you've helped make possible:

- A sold-out run of The SpongeBob Musical, with over 180 local young people performing on stage and working backstage
- Employed 49 artists to deliver creative work with children and young people
- Handbagged, a QTH production delivered in partnership with the National Theatre's Theatre Nation

Partnerships, toured England for 13 weeks and reached over 19,000 people

- Staged Surinderella as part of our British South Asian season of productions, welcoming hundreds of first-time audiences
- Commissioned a new play about Canvey Island music legend Wilko Johnson, now touring to three other London venues
- Expanded our support for people living with dementia and their carers, including free fortnightly events
- Cinderella featured a deaf and disabled performer in the title role and included five BSL-intergrated performances

Thanks to individuals, businesses and funders like you, live theatre continues to thrive at the heart of our community.

And here's how you can support us

There are lots of ways to help keep your local theatre thriving – whether it's a small monthly gift or a lasting dedication, every act of support makes a big difference.

Become a Queen's Angel

Queen's Angels are our amazing regular givers who support our work by making donations from as little as £5 a month, getting you advance booking for our wide range of shows.

Looking to get even closer to the action? Become a Benefactor Plus and receive exclusive invitations to Opening Nights and special supporter events.

Name a Seat – Celebrate and Support

Honour a loved one or mark a special moment by naming a seat in our auditorium. For £400, your personalised plaque will sit alongside theatre legends for 5 years – and your donation will directly support our creative work on and off stage.

Boost your donation with Gift Aid

If you're a UK taxpayer, Gift Aid allows us to claim an extra 25p for every £1 you give – at no extra cost to you. Just tick the box when donating.

Together, we can keep great theatre at the heart of our community.

Want to find out more?

Pop into our Box Office, give the team a call on 01708 443333, or email boxoffice@queens-theatre.co.uk – we'd love to chat about how you can get involved.

You can also visit the Support Us page at queens-theatre.co.uk to explore all the ways you can make a difference.

Outer Limits

Queen's Theatre Hornchurch's artist development programme. Over the next 6 months, QTH is inviting artists from across the UK to share their knowledge and skills with the actors, producers, writers and directors living and working in our vibrant creative community. We have curated a programme for artists who are 'early career' (at the beginning of their careers or transitioning to new disciplines) or 'mid-career' (those who have already established a career). It is not our place to decide where artists are in their careers; that will be up to you. However, we aim to create free, meaningful and tailored development opportunities for artists.

Writing Plays with Big Lungs. With Rebecca Latham

🕒 Fri 23 Jan | 10.30am - 12.30pm

🎫 Pay what you can

📍 The Other Stage

The RSC New Works Manager and Dramaturg Rebecca Latham will lead a workshop exploring the idea that large or main stages require plays with 'big lungs'. What are the contributing factors at play? How can you as a writer be thinking about your work for those stages and what are we as readers and programmers considering?

This workshop is for midcareer professional playwrights who have already had at least one of their plays professionally produced, performed by professional actors for a run of at least 11 performances or more. Or equivalent experience.

Audition prep – when time is not on your side. With Alex Thorpe

🎫 Pay what you can

📍 Learning Space

It's 5.30pm. You're on your way to your bar shift. Your agent calls. They have a casting for you at 10 am tomorrow. Sound familiar? Alex Thorpe, QTH Co-Creative Director, will lead a practical workshop and Q&A on how you might prepare for an audition when you only have a limited amount of time.

This workshop is for professional actors who are early or mid-career. You will have graduated from a recognised drama school and/or have completed your first professional acting job with a run of at least 11 performances. Equally, you may have an established and current professional acting career.

Directing Panto – Oh Yes You Can! With Kate Lovell

🕒 Mon 23 Feb | 3pm - 5pm

🎫 Pay what you can

📍 Learning Space

Kate Lovell, Co-Creative Director, will explore the art of directing pantomime. Drawing on experiences of directing Cinderella and Jack and the Beanstalk at Queen's Theatre Hornchurch, Kate will cover the pivotal role of the audience, call and response, traditions, casting and approaches to modernisation. This workshop is for early and mid-career directors.

A-Z of the Casting Process. With Hannah Miller

🎫 Pay what you can

📍 Learning Space

Join Hannah Miller for a workshop on the A-Z of the casting process. In this session you will work in small groups to cast a show from start to finish, working through challenges that come up at each step of the process.

Hannah has a wealth of experience and knowledge of the casting world. She was the RSC's Head of Casting between 2008-2022 and now works as a freelance Casting Director working with companies such as the Royal Exchange in Manchester and has recently cast the RSC's My Neighbour Totoro, as well as QTH's very own Bedroom Farce.

This workshop is for early-mid career actors, directors and producers and will be tailored to suit the needs of the group.

Direct Trajectories – forging a career in Theatre directing. With Hannah Joss

🕒 Thu 14 May | 10.30am - 12.30pm

🎫 Pay what you can

📍 Rehearsal Room

Join Hannah Joss – Associate Director (Literary) at Chichester Festival Theatre – to explore the multitude of trajectories into theatre directing. Hannah will demystify the pathways available to early-career directors; from making your own work, to assisting at major theatres, and not forgetting those pesky talent development schemes somewhere in the middle.

This workshop is for early-career professional directors who will have graduated from a recognised directing course and/or have completed your first professional directing/assistant directing job with a run of at least 11 performances.

From Planning to Performance: Touring Theatre Explained. With Francesca Clark

🕒 Thu 23 Apr | 2pm - 4pm

🎫 Pay what you can

📍 The Other Stage

Join Francesca Clark, QTH Producer, for a session on how to tour your work. Covering budgeting, tour booking, deals and promotion. Francesca will break down each part of the process to give you the best chance of creating a successful UK tour. This session is for early and mid-career producers*. You may already have a project you are working on or are looking to find out more about the process.

*This includes any artists who are producers or professional writers and directors interested in producing and touring their own work.

Getting Your Work Programmed. With Steven Bowyer

🕒 Thu 21 May | 10.30am – 12.30pm

🎫 Pay what you can

📍 The Other Stage

QTH Associate Producer, Steven Bowyer, leads a practical workshop on how to get your work programmed at a mid-scale venue. Covering how to approach venues, package and pitch your show and gain an insight into what venue programmers are looking for. There will be an opportunity to analyse tour packs and discuss practical steps for building relationships with venues.

This workshop is aimed at artists/organisations who are looking to further develop and tour their work.

Access

We want every visit to Queen's Theatre Hornchurch to be a welcoming and enjoyable experience. Below you'll find full details about our accessibility services and facilities.

Essential Companions

We have a limited number of free essential companion tickets available for performances. These tickets are for adult patrons who require essential support during their visit.

Assisted Hearing Headset and Loop Facility

Our Auditorium includes an assisted hearing facility. You can borrow either an inner ear headset or a transmission receiver from the Box Office to amplify the performance sound.

Audio Description (AD)

Audio Described performances include commentary of on-stage action delivered through headphones. When booking online, please select the "Audio Description User" ticket type.

Touch Tours (TT)

Before Live Audio Described performances, we offer Touch Tours, allowing you to explore the stage, set, and costumes prior to the show. To book, please book online or contact the Box Office.

BSL Interpreted

Performances (BSL)

Designed for deaf and hard of hearing individuals who use sign language, BSL interpreted performances feature an interpreter signing all spoken, sung, and heard elements throughout the show. When booking online, choose the 'BSL User' ticket type. Our Box Office holds seats with the best views of the interpreter, contact our team to book these.

Captioned

Performances (CP)

Captioned performances provide on-screen text of all spoken dialogue and sound effects, displayed on caption screens placed near the stage. These performances are ideal for deaf and hard of hearing patrons. When booking online, choose the 'Caption User' ticket type.

Dementia-Friendly

Performances (DF)

Developed in consultation with people living with dementia, these performances consider sound and lighting, stage action, seating arrangements, signage, and refreshment services.

If the show is in the Auditorium, we offer flexible seating options—such as keeping the seat next to you unsold for added space. A quiet area is also available outside the auditorium.

Relaxed Performances (RX)

Relaxed performances are ideal for anyone who would benefit from a calmer environment, particularly autistic people, learning disabled people, or anyone who may benefit from a more relaxed environment. They incorporate adjusted sound and lighting, mindful staging, and thoughtful front-of-house arrangements. As with dementia-friendly shows, flexible seating is available in the Main House and a quiet space is provided if needed. Ear defenders are available from our Box Office.

Contact Us

If you have any questions or need information not listed here, please contact our Box Office at 01708 443333 or email boxoffice@queens-theatre.co.uk.
